

ASCC SUSTAINING MEMBER BENEFITS LIST

Show your support and dedication to the future of ASCC and the concrete construction industry by becoming an ASCC Sustaining Member. Sustaining Members pay $3,250 per year in lieu of the regular dues. In addition to benefits received by all ASCC members, Sustaining Members receive:

- |                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Plaque                                           | A framed plaque suitable for placing in your lobby or other prominent location.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Member Directory                                 | Our sustaining members' logos are prominently displayed within the first section of the annual member directory, Plus, sustaining members receive free , full page black and white ad.                                                                     |
| Sponsored Personnel                              | Each Sustaining Member may designate four Sponsored Personnel in addition to the delegate member to receive all ASCC mailings.                                                                                                                                    |
| Special Recognition                              | A prominent listing of Sustaining Members is displayed at all ASCC functions: World of Concrete, the ASCC Annual Conference and the ASCC Concrete Executive Leadership Forum. Sustaining Member companies receive special ribbons to wear with their name badges. |
| Education, Research &amp; Development Foundation | In support of the ASCC Foundation, $100 of your first year's dues is allocated to the Foundation to provide scholarships and to fund research to advance the quality and productivity of concrete construction.                                                  |
| Web Listing                                      | The company names and logos of sustaining members rotate on the ASCC Home Page in alphabetical order.                                                                                                                                                             |
| Link In Newsletter                               | Associate sustaining members receive a link to site/page of their choice. Two companies featured each month on revolving basis.                                                                                                                                   |